Re: Centocor v. Genentech and City of Hope

Dear Matthew:

I am responding to your letter to David Gindler dated April 13, 2010. In reviewing the testimony of Dr. Cabilly both in his 2007 deposition and the deposition he gave this month, it does not appear to us that he revealed any privileged communications. Accordingly, it follows that there has not been any waiver of privilege.

If you have a different view, please let us know why you believe the information to which Dr. Cabilly testified was privileged in the first place.

Very truly yours,

Joseph M. Lipner
